ANNUAL ADDRESS

Delivered before the State Agricultural Society, October 10th, 1866, by C. F. Beatie, Esq., of Clackamas county.

GENTLEMEN OF THE OREGON STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY:—At the request of your President I am here to address you.

Among the industrial pursuits of men, agriculture ranks first in importance. When men assume fixed habitations the cultivation of the soil becomes a necessity in order to procure sustenance. And without fixed habitations the conveniences and comforts of life cannot be obtained or enjoyed; hence agriculture makes the first advance from barbarism to civilization. As in the boundaries of civilization the number engaged in the cultivation of the soil far exceeds the number engaged in any other pursuit, and as agriculture is the basis of prosperity to the whole, whatever tends to promote the interests of the farmer is of paramount importance. I congratulate you gentlemen that this Society having that very object in view assumes a character of permanence.

It has been found that a united effort on the part of those engaged in any enterprise is requisite to a complete success. This principle of association is not less necessary in farming operations. The agricultural societies formed in a number of the counties of our State, I have no doubt will serve as important auxiliaries to this the State Society.

I suggest the importance and utility of forming, in the various neighborhoods, Farmers' Clubs, where farming in detail may be taken into consideration. These may become aids to the county societies and thus there will be a general interest excited to promote agriculture. There is such diversity of soil and climate that no one rule of farming will hold good for all localities. It may be asked, has not Oregon, without these organizations succeeded very well in agriculture? I answer affirmatively. And yet the success cannot be attributed to excellence in the mode of farming, but rather to the fact that soon after farming was commenced here gold was discovered in California, which became for some years a market for the products of Oregon at almost fabulous prices. Now, except in seasons of drouth, the agricultural products of California are largely in excess of the wants of her population. Subsequently the discovery of the precious metals on our eastern border and in the adjacent Territories created a demand for and kept up the price of our products in the Willamette Valley. Now that demand is nearly supplied by the valleys east of the mountains, where farming has commenced in earnest. The present is somewhat a trying period for the farming interests of the Willamette and Umpqua valleys.

The scale upon which, and the spirit with which the manufacturing business has been commenced, gives encouragement, and although it is probable that branch of business will steadily increase, yet the home demand will not be nearly equal to the supply if the cultivation of the soil increases as it should. We must then seek a foreign market, and by a judicious system of farming increase our surplus, until there will be inducements to make the investments necessary to transport our products to some of the populous countries of the old world. With a ready market even at low prices the farmer will be able to make definite calculations.

Although the soil of Oregon does not equal in fertility some portions of the Mississippi valley, the soil is good and there has not been anything like a failure in the crops since farming was commenced here. Good farming requires not only that we raise large crops, but that we adopt that rotation in crops by which the richness of the soil may be kept up. There is something pleasing in the reflection that the farmer's land is becoming richer every year. The process of summer fallowing, which has been so generally adopted by the best farmers, and which is so necessary to eradicate fern and sorrel while the land is comparatively new, will not, I think, be found profitable if continued long—it will exhaust the land. We want some crop which will serve as a fertilizer. I am convinced from experiments made in my county (Clackamas,) that red clover will do well. Clover will grow better in some soils after the land has been tilled for several years. Then instead of continuing the process of summer fallowing, as is now done, let the land be sown to clover with a crop of spring sown grain, and the following year turn under a crop of clover when in blossom. By this process I have known worn-out land reclaimed in the State of Virginia and restored to more than their original fertility. In regard to pasturage, we want some kind of grass in addition to the kinds in use amongst us, which will ripen later, thus affording fresh green pasture at a more advanced period in the season. In this direction we need to experiment and report progress.

In the census report of 1860 the statement is made that the number of animals employed in farming operations is greater than the number of men, differing in this respect from all other countries. Hence, the great importance attached to stock raising and the necessity of getting the best kind of stock. Contrast the horses, cattle, sheep and hogs in Oregon in 1851, when I first saw them, with those here now, and it will be seen that very great improvement has been made. Every stock raiser should endeavor to get the very best variety of stock and improve that variety. Our agricultural interests demand untiring effort in that direction. The good stock already here is in the hands of the few—it should be in the hands of the many.

In the advancement of agriculture, we must avail ourselves of the labor saving machines which the enterprise and skill of our mechanics so abundantly furnished. We must connect with the manual labor the study of science bearing on our vocation. Without it we cannot keep pace with the improvements made in other departments of labor. Let us connect theory with practice. Although some of our most successful farmers never studied farming as a science, they would be more successful if they had done so.

I heartily endorse what the President said in his address as to the importance and utility of sustaining an agricultural paper in our midst.

The question arises whether, in view of the relation which a citizen sustains to this government the laboring classes have that share in the legislation of the country to which their numbers and the magnitude of the interests involved in their vocation entitle them. A negative answer must be given. Instance: The State of Oregon has three representatives in Congress. Two of them are lawyers by profession, the other not a representative man of the laboring class. Again: The county of Clackamas has four representatives in the State Legislature: two of them are lawyers by profession. These instances I have given, not with any party view or feeling that they are not good men and qualified for their position, but that when positions of trust and responsibility are to be filled we turn instinctively to professional men because of their superior qualifications. Those things ought not so to be. And now gentlemen farmers I propose to talk plainly, as I am a farmer. We want a proportionate share, in legislative departments of men who by vocation are in sympathy with us. The fault has mainly with us as professional men who are successful in their business are not generally office seekers. We place the standard of education far too low. How often do we hear it said that all the education a farmer needs is to be able to read, write and reckon by numbers so as to compute interest. Thus to limit the education is a twofold loss. First, of the actual knowledge embraced in a more liberal education; second, of the mental discipline which the mind acquires in attending to that knowledge. If you would have a man qualified for an honorable station in life you must begin with the boy.

In education among the laboring classes great improvements may be made by giving, as was urged in the opening address, more attention to common schools. Again, in the primary education be somewhat liberal; the literary farmers—even those in opulence—is ordinarily meagre, so that a taste for and habit of reading is not likely to be acquired by the sons of farmers. Though the habit of reading be acquired, in the absence of a good library, works of fiction are apt to supplant the place of history and scientific works, so that the mind is not enriched nor the heart made better. I know it is urged that the hard labor and out door exercise of the farmer is unfavorable to the close application and laborious research necessary to erudition. I ask, if the farmer who has a liberal education has acquired a taste for reading and the habit of study, may not ordinarily have both the time and the means to gratify that taste. I affirm that eminence in learning and pursuits involving manual labor are not incompatible. As illustrious examples take Washington in our own country and Cincinnatus among the ancient Romans. It may be that we have farmers who are qualified for any position of trust or responsibility. I know it and rejoice therein, yet we want the number of such greatly increased and their qualifications enlarged so that when positions are to be filled having a direct bearing upon our interests we will not turn to professional men, but may feel that there are those of the same vocation with ourselves, by scores and hundreds, amply qualified for any honorable station. In order to do this we must well improve our time not necessarily devoted to manual labor. Common sense alone, of which the farmer has as large a share as any class of professional men, does not fit us for positions we should occupy. We must have general intelligence in addition to the knowledge of our vocation. Then we need not fear priestly dictation or the chicanery of demagogues. What I have said of the farmer applies equally to all classes of laborers. Let us not think, fellow laborers, that because our vocations require even hard labor they are less honorable or that the way to useful knowledge is thereby hedged up. Having all due respect and esteem for what are called the learned professions, I think the upright, intelligent manual laborer the highest type of man.

"Honor and shame from no condition rise,
Act well your part, there all the honor lies."

Before closing I wish to make a few remarks in relation to the Fair and Agricultural Society. I have seen that on exhibition here which is instructive and entertaining. The improved stock speaks well for the enterprise, judgment and taste of the owners who have placed it on exhibition, and are endeavoring to bring it within the reach of the stock raisers generally. The grain, vegetables and fruit evince the fertility of our soil and the skill of the producer.

The implements of husbandry and housewifery are creditable to the mechanical department of labor. In the ladies' department are many things ornamental and useful, exciting our admiration. These are brought together for exhibition in connection with the annual meeting of the Agricultural Society, which serves as a nucleus.

The members of this Society, who commenced and have continued the organization to the present are entitled to great credit for the enterprise and public spirit shown in the endeavor to promote the industrial interests of our young State. The enterprise is in its incipiency—let the farmers who wish to come here with their wives, sons and daughters take hold of it with a hearty good will and make it what it should be—introducing what is beneficial and excluding what is pernicious, of which I regret to say, I have seen some things. The glory of agriculture is, that its pursuit is conducive to virtue, above that of other occupations.

It behooves those to whom the working operations of this Society is committed, to guard well at this point and tolerate nothing over which they have a vicious or immoral tendency. With hands inured to toil and skilled to labor, with minds stored with knowledge and disciplined to habits of thought and with heart beating in unison with the commands of God, we, as laborers, are under God invincible in the maintenance of our rights, social, political and religious.

IMPORTANT LETTER FROM GOVERNOR WELLS.—Governor Wells has addressed a friend in Louisiana the following letter, which, better than anything else will explain his convictions of the political situation South:

STATE OF LOUISIANA, EXECUTIVE DEP'T,
NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18, 1866.

Thomas H. Jones, Arcadia, Parish of Bienville—Dear Sir: I was highly gratified at the receipt of your favor of the 10th instant, both for old acquaintance sake and for your manifestations of approval of my recent address to the loyal people of the State. Knowing your steadfast loyalty to the Union amid perils that tried men's courage, I expected nothing less of you than your approbation and support of the principles and measures enunciated by the great Republican party, looking to the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion. For myself, I conscientiously believe the preservation of the Government and the safety of the lives of Union men in the South are involved in their success.

I don't wonder, my friend, that you advert to the present condition of Union men in this State, and can see but little difference between what they suffered under rebel rule and what they now have to submit to. Their fidelity to the Government is a brand or stigma—they are called all sorts of names, the word "Yankee" being the most general because, I suppose, considered the most opprobrious—they find themselves under the ban of proscription, both socially and in their business affairs, in every parish where the rebel element is in a majority, they see men holding the principal offices at whose hands perhaps, they and their families were persecuted, and this, too, at a time when the State is still under martial law, and when garrisons of United States troops can be communicated with almost at a day's notice everywhere. In this list of grievances I have said nothing of threats of violence and actual violence suffered by Union men.

I have left out the bloody record of the 30th of July in New Orleans when Union men were murdered by wholesale in broad daylight, and with thousands of United States soldiers within hailing distance. Now, my friend, if these things are done when we are under the protection of the strong arm of the military, if the envenomed hatred of the men who labored for four years to destroy the Government could not be restrained, even in the presence of the military, it is a serious subject for reflection to what extent this vengeance will be carried when unawed and unrestrained by the force of bayonets. In my address referred to, I gave it as my deliberate opinion that if the military forces were withdrawn the life of every prominent Union man would be endangered. I still adhere to that opinion and will add, by way of amendment, that unless the force is increased I do not consider the protection thus afforded as a perfect security by any means. You know my friend I tried the "conciliation" policy in this State thoroughly. I did so in good faith, and with a sincere desire to heal the wounds of the country. The result you know as well as I do. I have and do acknowledge that it failed in its object.

Perhaps it is well the experiment was tried. It has demonstrated to the people of the loyal States the undying hostility of the spirit of slavery to free government. It has shown that the clemency extended to its advocates, who plunged the country into a bloody war, has been unavailing in winning them back to their allegiance and the only policy by which the nation can be preserved from these plotters for its overthrow is to punish traitors that, to use President Johnson's emphatic language, treason may be forever rendered odious."

That Congress will regulate all these matters at its next session is not a matter for doubt. Its first duty as I conceive will be to pass an enabling Act prescribing how the rebel States shall be reorganized. The first preliminary to that end will of course be a Convention from the people to form a Constitution, and in electing that Convention I consider that Congress has the constitutional right to say who shall vote and who shall not vote.

When the Convention meets the power rests in that body to fix and regulate the basis of suffrage in the Constitution they may adopt, being submitted to Congress for its approval.

This I understand to be the programme of the Republican party and is a shorter as well as a more effectual method for the redress of our grievances than by persisting in the assembling of the Convention of 1864, as you suggest. After the murderous onslaught made on the members of that Convention with the Mayor and his bloody police still in power, sustained and supported by the President of the United States, I consider that Convention no longer practicable.

I see no alternative, therefore, but to await the meeting of Congress, in whose wisdom and patriotism I have the highest confidence, and who I feel assured will take care of Louisiana.

With thanks for your good wishes, I remain very truly, your friend,

Governor of Louisiana.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 30, 1866.

The Oracle Unmuzzles His Wisdom.

The Democrats hold Legislative caucuses, but we never heard of a Democratic member being denounced as a dishonored traitor for refusing to subordinate his conscience to caucus dictation. His obligations to his constituents and to his oath of office are regarded as paramount.

What delightful innocence and refreshing simplicity are here manifested! It may be wicked to put these illusions to flight; but we can't help doing it. Know then, exotic Copperhead editor, that in time agone, the Democracy of this State to whom you are now extending your ministrations, pledged their party to what became proverbially known as the "5th and 6th Resolutions," whereof the following is a true copy:

"5. Resolved, That we repudiate the doctrine that a representative or delegate can, in pursuance of the wishes or fancied interests of the district he represents, go into or remain out of a caucus or convention of his party and refuse to support the nominations thereof, and still maintain his standing a democrat.

"6. Resolved, That the re-election of any representative or delegate thus refusing to support democratic nominations would not 'be an endorsement or approval of his conduct beyond which the democracy of other districts would have no right to enquire,' but that it would be both the right and the duty of sound democrats everywhere to discard him as a disorganizer and an enemy."

These resolutions constitute a part of the platform framed by the Democratic Territorial Convention held at Salem in April, 1857. They were adopted with deliberation, by a special vote of 53 ayes to 6 nays. Kelly, O'Meara, Foy and others, who had wanted office and couldn't get it under the regular party organization, protested against this rigorous discipline, and for their pains were immediately put out of the party and "denounced as dishonored traitors." At the ensuing election, though the renegades got almost all the Republican vote, the straight Democratic ticket was elected by nearly two to one. So the "5th and 6th Resolutions" received an emphatic endorsement by the Democratic party of Oregon.

In those days the Oregon Statesman was considered a very good Democratic authority. The following piece of doctrine is from the issue of that paper of January 6th, 1857:

Every man who claims to belong to the Democratic organization is bound by the nominations of the Conventions and the caucuses of that party whether he is present at them or not—just as much if he is not as if he is.

The editor of the Copperhead sheet in this city claims to be a "teacher and representative" of his party. He never heard of a Democratic member being denounced as a dishonored traitor for refusing to submit to caucus dictation! Not he. He never heard of any case where the member's obligations to his constituents were not regarded by his party as paramount! No, never. Most rare and excellent "teacher and representative" is this imported ignoramus, this babe in Democracy, this novitiate in party discipline, this tyro in Democratic creeds, this beginner in Democratic learning, this unsophisticated, unpractised expounder of the Democratic faith,—who never heard of such a thing in all his life as party discipline and caucus dictation, and who is innocent of the least knowledge of the ancient customs and usages of the party which he professes to lead and "teach." "We never heard," etc., etc. Well then, "we" had better inquire, and endeavor to learn something about Oregon politics, putting off in the meantime this air of wisdom, gravity and profound conceit which in "our" character of oracle, "we" have assumed,—and "we" may in time become schooled in Democratic customs and practices.

Party Legislation.

In extenuation of the tardiness of the House in prosecuting the business of the session, and its final failure to transact anything of importance, the Copperheads are charging that the Senate, a majority of whose members were Unionists, devoted its time exclusively to partisan legislation, which the House did well to defeat. The Copperhead organ of this place, with its usual accuracy, affirms that "the disposition which the Senate showed was to legislate exclusively for the party and the benefit of partisans, and to defeat every measure which was introduced by Democrats." This is one of perhaps thirty or more positively untruthful statements which appeared in a single editorial of that paper on Friday. A brief resume of the Senate's share in the legislation of the session will serve to show how utterly reckless of the truth is the individual who penned the above extract.

Senate bill No. 1—"To tax and protect Chinamen," &c., was introduced by Mr. Miller, a Democrat, and passed. Senate bill No. 2; introduced by Mr. Huston, Democrat, was killed at his own suggestion, he being satisfied that it was unconstitutional but the object of the bill was secured by an amendment to another bill, which was offered by Mr. Johnson, Union. Senate bill No. 4, by Mr. Miller, Democrat, passed. Senate bill No. 17, by Mr. Ison, Democrat, to increase fees of county officers east of the mountains, was defeated through opposition of members from that section, and because the fees had already been once increased to 33 and 50 per cent. above those of other counties. Senate bill No. 19, by Mr. Ford, Democrat, passed. Senate bill 22, to establish a medical college—defeated, without a word of political discussion from either side, but because it was thought to be of doubtful constitutionality and unnecessary, as such an institution could be just as well incorporated under the general laws. Senate bill 23, by Mr. Caldwell, Democrat, to regulate roads and highways, was referred to a committee with other bills by Union Senators, for the purpose of embodying their several provisions in one bill. Senate bill, 30, by Mr. Ison, Democrat, for the relief of Baker county passed. S. B. 33, to amend the code in relation to collection and return of taxes, defeated for the reason that it proposed that the State should relinquish every year to each county, all the State tax which had not been collected by the county at the time of making payment to the State Treasurer. S. B. 35, by Mr. Jeffries, Democrat, according to our recollection, was laid on the table. There was no partisanism either in the bill or in the act of disposing of it. The memorial by Mr. Ford, for the removal of Indians from the Umatilla reservation, passed. The two bills introduced by Mr. Jeffries, Democrat, for the expulsion of Chinamen, negroes and mulattoes from the State, were never finally acted upon because not introduced till final action had become a physical impossibility. They were not introduced with any expectation that final action could be possible, nor with any desire that they should pass; but simply for the purpose of making political buncombe.

The above mentioned measures comprise, with perhaps an exception or two, all that were introduced by Democrats in the Senate. Of the twelve mentioned, six were either passed in the original form or secured by merging in other similar bills, and six defeated. Of the whole number of bills introduced in the Senate, only fourteen out of about sixty, became laws; or about one-sixth of those introduced by Union members, and one-half of all introduced by Democrats. That is how the Senate showed a disposition to "legislate exclusively for the party and the benefit of partisans, and to defeat every measure which was introduced by Democrats."

We are willing to admit and we do affirm that the Democrats, both in the House and Senate, made partisan measures of the Registry bill and the School bill—the one to secure the purity of the ballot and the other to secure the perpetuity of republicanism by providing a more perfect system of general education. Neither of these objects seem to be embraced in the Democratic creed. Fraud in elections and ignorance in the social system are the means by which Democracy is best propagated and secured in numerical dominance, and the Democrats in the Legislature rallied with their usual unanimity to the defense of those two, their favorite agencies.

ANOTHER "GROUNDSWELL."—It is worth while in these times and in the midst of greater Radical victories to notice the "groundswell" in West Virginia, reported in the dispatches this morning. This is merely an appetizer to prepare everybody for the news which is to come next week. Three more "traitors at this end of the line" are elected to the "Congress which is hanging on the verge of the Government." The prophecies of the Copperjohnsons are being fulfilled like Rory O'More's dreams,—according to the rule of "conthrairy."

RAILWAYS IN THE UNITED STATES.—There were in the United States in September, 1865, 503 railway companies, with nearly 366,000 miles of railway, and spending for annual expenses $1,206,365,000. Pennsylvania has more miles of railroad than any other State, reporting 3,850, and during 1865 constructed more miles than New York and New England combined. Ohio is the second State, with 3,310 miles; and Illinois third, with 3,156 miles. These returns do not include horse railroads.

Ex-Governor Bigler of California has been appointed Assessor of Internal Revenue for the Sacramento district. J. W. Avery, the incumbent, refuses to surrender the office on the ground that there was no vacancy to fill when the nomination was made, and that Bigler's appointment will not be completed till his confirmation by the Senate. Here is a question for the Courts. If Avery is sustained, office holders everywhere may rest in quiet and security.

A case has been taken up from California to the Supreme Court of the United States to test the constitutionality of the law changing internal revenue assessments from gold to greenbacks.

It is proposed to place an iron tubular bridge under the Mississippi at St. Louis to complete the railway connection between Illinois and Missouri.

STATE ITEMS.

Mr. D. P. Thompson, who has recently returned from a surveying expedition east of Fort Klamath, reports that some portions of that country present good inducements for settlement, being highly susceptible of cultivation and producing grass abundantly. Mr. Thompson has surveyed thirteen townships, and the lands are now open to purchase and settlement.

The Oregon Agriculturist suspended publication with the issue of Oct. 20th, for want of adequate support. In his "valedictory," the editor says: "What support we have received, has been grudgingly extended, as far as we are able to judge. The opinion of the farming class generally, seems to be that we should be under obligations to them for the privilege of sending our paper to them." The Agriculturist has labored faithfully and well in behalf of the industrial interests of Oregon, during its short career, and it deserved a better fate.

At the late term of the Circuit Court in Douglas county, William Wells was convicted of larceny and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. This was the only conviction for crime, on several other indictments continuances were had or the party charged acquitted. Two divorces were granted—to Mary Ragsdale and to Aaraminth Waters.

The body of Louis Leopold, who was drowned about a week ago at Oregon City, was found yesterday in the Willamette, near the mouth of the Clackamas river.

Mrs. J. H. Herbert died at Roseburg on the 23d inst., after an illness of only two hours.

A skeleton was lately found about fifty miles east of Jacksonville, supposed to be the remains of a German saddler known as Joe, of Phoenix, in Jackson county, who disappeared mysteriously, in that vicinity about four years ago, and has never been heard of since.

The Yreka Journal, noticing the organization of the "Oregon Central Railroad Company," goes into ecstasies and confidently predicts rail communication between Portland and Sacramento within two years.

FROM IDAHO.

AN INDIAN FIGHT.

Thunder and Blixin creek is located about thirty miles south of Malheur lake. A detachment of ten men from Co. M., Capt. Hunt, under Lieut. Patton, had a brush with a band of Indians out there on the 27th of September. We are informed that the Indians were seventy-five in number, six of whom were killed in the fight. Lieut. Patton had one man and four horses wounded.

RETURN OF THE WIND RIVER EXPLORERS.

Captain Bledsoe and Colonel Kinney and two others whose names we did not learn, arrived in town last night from their long tour in the mountains. We are pleased to acknowledge a short friendly call from them and to announce their safe return. We have only time now to say that so far as finding mines goes, their explorations are a failure. They and their entire party have traveled during the summer not less than sixteen hundred miles and prospected on the Big Horn, Wind river, Medicine Lodge and as many other streams—head waters of the Yellowstone and Snake river. They found very small prospects of fine gold over a large extent of country, in fact almost everywhere they went, but nowhere in quantity sufficient to pay. The country is well supplied with grass, but timber is scarce. Water is abundant, but the gold is not there. They found vast beds of cemented gravel in some places, apparently many hundred feet in depth, being upon a bed of sandstone. Their explorations have been more thorough than is usually the case with such expeditions. There have been four different parties in that section of country the past summer numbering as follows: Capt. Bledsoe, forty-five men; Capt. Standefer, forty-nine men; Capt. Patterson, ninety-five men; Baley, fifty-three men. These parties have occasionally met or heard from each other and laid their course so as each to explore different localities. The report from them all, is the same—no pay. It is not a gold-bearing country. Very little quartz was found, and that of worthless looking character. They met with little difficulty from the Indians, which, however, they attribute more to their own strength rather than the good disposition of the Indians. All the parties have broken up and dispersed in different directions—some to Salt Lake, others to the Missouri river, Montana, and some are coming back to Idaho.

GUBERNATORIAL ITEMS.

The Vedette of the 18th mentions the arrival of old Kale at Salt Lake, on his way to New York.

The subjoined items are from the Avalanche of the 20th:

JUDGMENTS AGAINST THE ORO FINO MINE.

The miners formerly employed on the Oro Fino Mine have obtained judgments to the aggregate amount of $21,891 57 in suits commenced under the lien law, and against More & Fogus' interests in said mine. Judgment was confessed in open court.

RICH QUARTZ LEDGE.

Two weeks ago we noticed a discovery made on War Eagle by George Vass and others. Mr. Vass sold his interest and the vein is now owned by J. B. Woodward, H. & W. A. Kilbourn, H. Tunges, J. E. Swartz and Allen Becber. The name given the ledge is "Woodstock." The ledge is opened up to a depth of twelve feet, is fifteen inches wide and well defined. When we examined it the first time, it was broken down and in a fragmentary condition, but further labor has disclosed the vein and nearly perpendicular casings. A specimen of several pounds weight, left at our office on Wednesday, shows much free gold and black sulphurets of silver equal in richness to much of the Poorman. The discovery is forty feet west of the Empire ledge and parallel with it, and about three hundred feet south-east of the original Poorman Discovery.

REVOCATION OF POWER TO SELL.

The trustees of the Oro Fino and Morning Star mining company met and revoked the power given to J. M. More to sell their property. Cause, apparent had faith on the part of More towards the company. A full and true history of all the moves made in this More & Fogus transaction would be of unusual interest. The lawyers seem to be happy, if nothing more.

A NEW YORK BROKER.—The following story of a New York broker shows something of Charles Lamb's delicate humor: The broker, who, like Lamb, stutters, passing down Broadway, noticed a placard announcing that the Siamese Twins were on exhibition. He entered the hall, asked the attendants if they were the re-re-real Siamese Twins; and upon being assured that they were, proceeded to ask a great many questions, which were fully answered. At last, seizing hold of the ligature that connects Chang and Eng, the broker asks: "Sa-a-ame-ugh?" "Yes," replied the agent; when, looking in the latter's face, the stutterer remarked, "B-b-brothers, I presume."

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO OCTOBER 29.

Radical Victory in Western Virginia.

WHEELING, VA., Oct. 26.—The Western Virginia election yesterday, shows radical gains. Governor Boreman has probably seven thousand majority; three Radical Congressmen and all the Radical legislature elected.

Gen. Sherman to be temporary Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—General Sherman, with General Grant held an interview with the President to-day, and the belief prevails that he will temporarily assume charge of the War Department after Stanton finishes his report. Sherman, Grant and Romero occupied a box at the theatre last night.

The Official Votes.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—The official vote of Pennsylvania is, Geary 306,991; Clymer 289,856. The official vote in Ohio for Secretary of State, gives Smith, Republican, 256,302; Lefevre, Democrat, 213,600.—This is unintelligible, and we are unable to correct the figures.—ED. OREGONIAN.] The Indiana official vote is, for Secretary of State, Trusler, Republican, 161,618; Munson, Democrat, 155,196. It will be seen that the totals are in all cases largely increased over the votes for Lincoln and McClellan, two years ago.

The Fenian Trials in Canada.

TORONTO, C. W., Oct. 26.—The court resumed the trial of the Fenian prisoners. Rev. John McMahon, (Catholic) President, being arraigned, was proved to have been among the Fenian invaders at Fort Erie. His counsel urged that he was there by compulsion or as spiritual Adviser for the wounded and dying, and was not himself a combatant. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner has been sentenced to be hanged on the 13th, the same day as Col. Lynch, condemned. Rumor prevails of attempts to rescue Lynch and McMahon, and there is considerable excitement.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The Fenian trials at Toronto cause great indignation in the Fenian and Democratic circles. Mayor Hoffman convened the Common Council, which adopted a resolution requesting President Johnson to interfere.

Tammany Hall had a rousing meeting, and also adopted resolutions. The reports at headquarters are universally animated and the Fenians declare that if Lynch and his followers are hanged, Canada will suffer fresh invasion and revenge.

Rumored Protectorate for Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Rumors prevail of negotiations for an American protectorate over Mexico. It is said that Lower California will be ceded and a new boundary drawn through Chihuahua and Sonora.

A Panic in Utah.

WASHINGTON, October 27.—Gen. Connor, formerly commanding in Utah, telegraphs from Salt Lake that the Gentiles are panic-stricken and advise the Rev. Norman Leod not to return (per steamer).

Napoleon's Recovery Pronounced Hopeless.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The Tribune's Berlin letter says Langhderbern, Chief Surgeon of the Prussian army, left several days ago for Berlitz to consult with the physicians of the French Emperor on the possibility of an operation. Yesterday a dispatch was received from the Prussian embassy at Paris, stating that there is no hope of the recovery of Napoleon.

Departure of Gen. Dix—Confirmation of a Land Grant.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Gen. Dix will depart for France probably this week. His family sailed in the Arago on Saturday last.

The grant for the colonization of the vacant lands of lower California to an American company consisting of C. K. Garrison, Caleb Cushing, Wm. G. Fargo, Gen Butler, Francis Morris, Edward B. Sanford, Wm. R. Travers, George Wilkes and others, has been confirmed by the Juarez Government, and the parties have received their formal orders of possession through the Mexican Minister at Washington.

Gov. Orr Pronounces against the Constitutional Amendment.

Governor Orr authorizes the South Carolinian to say that he is utterly and unequivocally opposed to the Constitutional amendment, and will not recommend its adoption by the Legislature.

Seward on the Fenian Trials.

CAIRO, Oct. 29.—Secretary Seward has directed our Consul at Toronto to procure a copy of the record of the trial and conviction of Lynch and McMahon, and also of all further trials and convictions of a similar character, and he has addressed Sir Frank Bruce, British Minister at Washington, notifying him that our Government will take the action required by the highest consideration of national dignity. Seward says to Bruce: "It would be very gratifying to the President if you should be able to give an assurance that the execution of the sentences will be suspended if occasion for delay should arise. Finally, I deem it proper to say that the offenses involved in these trials are in their nature eminently political, and it is the opinion of this Government that sound policy coincides with the best impulses of benevolent nature in recommending tenderness, amenity and forgiveness. This suggestion is made with freedom and earnestness because the same opinions were proposed to us in our recent civil war by all Governments and public bodies of Europe, and by none with greater frankness and kindness than by the Government and statesmen of Great Britain."

Petitions Against Mercy.

Dispatches from Toronto say that petitions are coming in demanding that no mercy be shown to the Fenians; and that the threats made in New York and elsewhere to avenge the death of these prisoners are doing great injury. There are several hundred Irish Americans in Toronto apparently without employment, and it is believed they are there to attempt a rescue. Three more Fenian prisoners at Cornwall will be indicted on Monday for high treason.

The Judge to the Prisoner.

Judge Wilson, in pronouncing the sentence of death on Col. Lynch, last Thursday, said: "The evidence brought to bear in the court is clear and conclusive that you were not in Canada as a newspaper reporter on the occasion charged in the indictment, but you were armed in some kind of manner; but even if you were there as a reporter you are not guiltless. Your object in that case was to encourage others to content if these men had been successful or if reverses had happened. Looking at your conduct in that light, you can't be surprised that the law should be enforced and that you should suffer its penalty. You complain that those who were in command on that occasion were not allowed to testify in your behalf. If the crown had given any such pledge of safe conduct as has been spoken of, it could not be carried out. You have had all the justice you could possibly get, as the case now stands. You might be sentenced to immediate execution, but inasmuch as that law is ex post facto as to you, I shall not exercise any discretion I may have to shorten your existence one hour more. Moreover, you have a right to bring the whole case into Court upon an appeal, and God forbid I should deprive you of that opportunity. The period of your execution will therefore be delayed until the end of next term.

The prisoner, Robert B. Lynch, is a native of Galway, aged 45 years, and was connected with the Quarter-master department at Louisville during the war. He claims to have been in Canada as a correspondent of the Louisville Journal, and before sentence of death was pronounced, he said: "I am innocent of the crime charged against me, and of which I have been found guilty. I pledge myself before that God in whose presence I must some day appear, that I am wholly innocent."

Mexican Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The Mexican Minister has received dispatches from the city of Puebla, Mexico, containing an official report of a battle at Ixmequilpan, a place thirty leagues from the city of Mexico, occupied by Liberals, and was repulsed. The legion lost 20 officers killed on the spot, and retired to Intulla, leaving artillery in the hands of the Mexicans. Their officers who survived the battle have since embarked at Vera Cruz for Belgium.

VERA CRUZ, Oct. 12, 1866—11 P. M.—The St. Nazaire (?) steamer arrived here early this evening, having Gen. Castelneau on board. His instructions are to send to France in two detachments all French troops. He brings besides a message from Napoleon to Maximilian, advising him to abdicate in favor of anybody he pleases, and to go home. He is authorized to offer Maximilian the protection of the French flag, with a view that he return in safety.

Minister Marquis De Gallifet has no mission of any kind, and he only comes to join his regiment and return to France.

Gen. Bazaine came to Puebla to meet Gen. Castelneau. Gen. Bazaine feels very sore against Maximilian for very discreditable reports that Carlotta has spread in Europe.

A SPLENDID SPECTACLE.—For the first time in this city our citizens had the pleasure of witnessing a balloon ascension from the vacant grounds lately occupied by the Cosmopolitan Circus. Fortunately the day was pleasant and the atmosphere was exhilarating. A large concourse of ladies and gentlemen assembled at an early hour to witness the inflation and the huge air vessel start up on its aerial flight. Everything being in readiness, the combustibles underneath were ignited, and gradually the immense structure filled, and at the signal, the fastenings were loosed and Mons Buislay rapidly and gracefully rose where the heads of the dense throng, then above the housetops, meanwhile going through a series of gymnastic evolutions on the trapeze bar, which was indeed thrilling and almost frightful. There being no motion in the air, he ascended almost perpendicularly for some ten minutes, until reaching an altitude of some half a mile he reached a slight northerly current, in which still going up he gracefully floated off the distance of some few hundred yards. Here the aeronaut remained poised for a few moments, the balloon keeping an exact position, making, all combined, a truly wonderful and graceful scene, and one seldom equaled in such flights. Great praise is due the gentlemanly manager, Mr. Vincent, for prosecuting this matter to a successful issue, in the face of much discouragement, and no little pecuniary loss, and our citizens are certainly indebted to him for favoring us with this splendid spectacle, and has earned for him a name he richly deserves, of being among the prince of showmen.

A MILL MAN.—Mr. Williamson, one of the proprietors of the Freeport mills on the Sound, is now in this city. We understand that Mr. W. comes to Portland for the purpose of examining the prospects of the place as a locality at which to establish a merchant mill. Mr. W. has been one of the successful lumbermen of the Sound, and we have no doubt will arrive at the conclusion that "there is no good reason why lumber should not be manufactured as cheaply here as on the Sound." We are glad that the attention of such men has been attracted to this city, as we think that one of the greatest natural resources of the country is comparatively undeveloped, and that the establishment of a large first class mill will be a source of wealth to our community, and will afford in its multifarious branches, employment to many.

POLICE COURT.—There seems a dearth of business in the Police Court. We have not for some time had a case of dead drunk to chronicle. Jerry Knox was yesterday arraigned for running a two horse team within city limits. The ruling of the judge was that all teams living within the city limits and running a team must take out license.

OREGON PRODUCE.—The steamer Senator brought last night from Oregon City, 388 sks feed, 4 cases mdse, ... 7 gunnies bacon, 1 sausage machine, 1 tub, 1 rocking chair, 5 hf bbls butter, 4 bales woolen goods, 11 sks potatoes and 1 bbl kraut.

FOUND.—The body of the drowned man Lewis Leopold ... yesterday afternoon by an Indian, near the mouth of the Clackamas river. The body was taken to Oregon City for interment.

FOR HONOLULU.—Passengers for the bark Eldridge must take the steamer J. H. Couch for Astoria on Friday ... 2d November to arrive in time for the sailing of the Eldridge.

THE MONTANA.—We learn that we were in error in regard to the sailing of the steamship Montana. She does not leave San Francisco until Wednesday the 31st inst.

CORRECTION.—The article in yesterday's OREGONIAN, under the head, "The Oregon City Paper Mill," should have been credited to the Oregon City Enterprise.

RACE.—We learn that a race was made up yesterday for Monday the 12th inst. Whisky against Misfortune, single dash of a mile for $500 a side, pay or play.

TO SAIL.—The steamer Oriflamme will leave this port for San Francisco direct on, or about Thursday the 1st prox.

TO SAIL.—The steamer Montana will leave this port for San Francisco direct, on or about Wednesday, the 7th prox.

TREASURE.—The messenger of Wells, Fargo & Co. last ... brought from the north $80,000 in treasure.

Ten lengths, of fifty feet each, stood one hundred and eighty pounds pressure. Hayes says there is no better made at the East. The Yreka Journal says: A man named James Townsend, a trader in Surprise Valley, was killed on the 27th of September, while scouting for Indians who had stolen some horses from the valley. The soldiers from Fort Bidwell started in pursuit of the red-skins, and expect to give them a good thrashing.

A little child of a man named Blake, living not far from Napa, was poisoned a few days ago by eating cobalt, which had been mixed in a plate for purpose of killing flies. It lived but a few hours after taking it.

Recently J. Reid, while engaged in driving an ox team with a load of lumber at Gregg's Mill, Strawberry Valley, Siskiyou county, was crushed by the load upsetting upon him, occasioned by ... making a short turn.

A mineral paint has been found in a tunnel near Olmstead's Mill, Sonoma county. Mr. Geo. F. Allen, of Petaluma, has tested it, and says it is the genuine article, and of superior quality.

The expedition fitted out at San Diego, to search for quicksilver mines in Lower California, near the mouth of the Colorado, has been successful and has found gold as well.

CONSTERNATION AT THE WHITE HOUSE.—A Washington dispatch, dated September 29th says:

There is great consternation at the White House over the political situation. Many who have heretofore been most sanguine concerning the success of the Conservative movement freely admit that utter defeat is in store for them. The President is petulant and his bearing is that of a man who feels his case to be desperate. Many of his strongest supporters are advising him to abandon his position and recognize the popular will already seen.

The managers of the Cleveland Convention, or rather the Washington Resident Committee appointed by it, had an interview with Johnson to-day to try to persuade him to recall the appointment of one of Fernando Wood's right-hand men as Collector in the Brooklyn District. This, however, the President refused to do. The most urgent protests from New York have come in, saying that the appointments will cost the Conservatives 10,000 votes. Still the President holds out, and the Resident Committee, thinking it a matter of vital importance, have started in a body for New York to-night to consider what can be done in this matter at that end of the line.

We have rumors by the last Santa Fe coach, which arrived on Saturday, that the Tabegnache Utes, recently visited and talked at by Governor Cummings, have commenced active hostilities against the Mexican residents at Trinidad and along the Purgatoire. There is a report of a twelve hours' fight, the Indians being determined upon a general massacre. The settlers in the region of the disturbance are said to be panic-stricken, and leaving their herds scattered and crops ungathered, are flocking to Pueblo and other places for protection. We hope for particulars by the next Southern mail.

The annuity goods for those Indians were, a part of them, despatched southward for distribution, on Saturday last. It seems almost incredible that they should have commenced hostilities when they were daily in expectation of their annuities.

The Nebraska Republican says of the Union Pacific Railroad:

We hear our railroad men estimating that if the good fortune which has attended them thus far in the construction of the Union Pacific Railroad continues, they will have it completed to the base of the mountains—350 miles distant—by next September, with the utmost ease. In this estimate they give themselves a wide margin, and the mountains may echo the shriek of the iron horse before that time, though their estimate is perfectly satisfactory to the most sanguine or the most impatient. The grade of the fourth hundred miles is expected to be finished by the middle of November.

The people of San Francisco are getting into a ferment on the swill-milk question. Dr. Rowell, who is lecturing on that subject, is listened to by immense crowds.

ARTEMUS WARD.—ELLSWORTH & CARDWELL, 39 First Street, have just learned that the old joker is now in London, contributing articles to Punch, and being lionized generally. It is presumed that in his wanderings he does not forget the fact that the gentlemen whose names commence this paragraph still furnish the public with the most beautiful SUN PEARLS, and all other kind of PICTURES. Quantum sufficit.

Report of the Joint Committee Appointed to Visit the Insane Asylum, by the Oregon Legislature.

MR. PRESIDENT:—The Joint Committee appointed in pursuance of House joint resolution No. —, to visit the Oregon Insane Asylum, and report upon its condition, management etc., having discharged the duty assigned them would respectfully submit the following report:

The committee are free to say that they were very agreeably surprised at the order and convenience of the institution at this time. The main and centre portion of the building has assumed the proportions of a three-story frame, well ventilated and lighted, forty feet square, the first floor of which has 12 feet ceiling, and the second and third stories 11 feet each. A new wing of two stories, each with ceiling of 12 feet, 31 by 80 feet in size, and the south wing made to conform to it exactly, with all the modern improvements. There are now eleven wards in the building, in each one of which is a bathing room, with hot and cold water, patent closets, and all the necessary arrangements for bathing. There are altogether 100 rooms for patients in the asylum, leading from the main hall, all of which are ventilated in accordance with the best plans. The stoves are all strongly secured against accident to the unfortunate by having iron cribs. There is also a dining room 1½ stories high, 36 by 60 feet. The bakery, in which there is a brick oven 12 foot long by 6 wide, is adjoining the dining room buildings, kitchen, etc. The supply of water for the entire institution is now furnished from a reservoir situated in the rear of the County Hospital upon a strongly framed tower with a base of 36 feet square by 30 feet at the top—60 feet above the lower floors of the building. The reservoir has a capacity of 12,000 gallons of water, taken from the stream that passes the asylum. The household, including attendants and patients, number 120 persons, while the order and discipline observed is all that can be expected in an institution of that kind. The patients are furnished with sufficient food of a plain and nutritious character, and also plainly and comfortably clad. They appear healthy and generally contented, giving evidence of having been benefited by the treatment they have received. The committee have had some intimation of a violation of some of the conditions of the contract, on the part of the contractors, and being very desirous of investigating any rumor that might be afloat, and righting matters, if there was anything wrong, delayed any conclusive report for ten days for the purpose of allowing charges to be preferred before the committee. They also notified persons where they held their meetings, but there were no charges ever brought before the committee against the contractors, and the committee have arrived at the conclusion that Messrs. Hawthorne & Loryea, the contractors, have performed their obligations respecting the contract, and your committee, in conclusion, have only to say that they are pleased to report the institution and its surroundings in a flourishing and prosperous condition.

ATTENTION BALD HEADS.—If anything will restore your hair on the place where the "wool ought to grow," Martha Washington Hair Renewer will certainly do it.

EXCEEDINGLY EFFECTIVE.—BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are excellent lozenges for the relief of Hoarseness or Sore Throat. They are certainly exceedingly effective. We have known several instances in which troublesome Coughs have ceased very speedily after one or two Troches were taken.—Christian World, London, Eng.

ANOTHER WAR THREATENED.—As the Fall trade begins, there seems to be no end to the competitors for low prices, and it is therefore to the interest of the public to know that Messrs. KOHN & FISHEL, at the ST. LOUIS STORE, NO. 111 FRONT STREET, sell the best quality of Custom-Made Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, &c., at such low prices as to astonish the oldest inhabitant. "Competition is the life of trade," therefore call in and examine the stock and compare it with the prices elsewhere.

BUCHTEL'S PREMIUM GALLERY was represented at the State Fair, as it always has been, and did take the FIRST PREMIUM as usual. His work stands for itself and does not require bombastic puffs in self-written cards, to recommend itself to the public. All kinds of work in the art furnished in the very latest styles.

CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the economists, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

LAWS OF OREGON,

AN ACT to provide for the registration of the personal property of married women.

WHEREAS, The Constitution secures the property and pecuniary rights of married women against the debts and contracts of their husbands; therefore, for the better protection as well of married women as of purchasers and creditors of their husbands:

SECTION 1. That the clerk of each county shall keep a register in which he shall enter a description of the personal estates of married women, as hereinafter directed.

Sec. 2. A married woman possessed of or owning any personal property or pecuniary rights may make a descriptive list of the same, and make and subscribe, on the said list, an oath that the property and rights therein described, belonged to her at the time of her marriage, or that she has acquired the same by bequest or inheritance, or by the gift of some person named other than her husband. And the said list and affidavit shall be recorded in the said register, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and property not so registered shall be deemed prima facie to be the property of the husband rather than the wife.

Sec. 3. A certified copy of the register shall be original evidence equally with the original list and affidavit, and the fees for recording and for making and certifying copies of the register shall be the same as in the case of deeds.

Sec. 4. The Act of January 4, 1859, "to provide for the registration of the separate property of married women, and to declare the effect thereof," is hereby repealed.

Approved, Oct. 24, 1866.

AN ACT to regulate the foreclosure of chattel mortgages.

Section 1. That whenever the condition of any mortgage of goods and chattels shall be broken, the mortgagee shall be entitled to the immediate possession of the mortgaged property; and when, after breach of the condition of any such mortgage, the possession of the mortgaged property shall not be delivered up to the mortgagee, upon demand of him, or any person duly authorized by him to make such demand of the person or persons having such mortgaged property in possession, the mortgagee may recover the possession of such mortgaged property in the manner provided by title XIV, of chapter I, the Code of Civil Procedure.

Sec. 2. Whenever in any mortgage of goods and chattels, the parties to such mortgage shall have provided the manner in which such mortgage may be foreclosed, such mortgage, upon breach of the condition thereof, may be foreclosed in the manner therein provided, and not otherwise. And if in any such mortgage the manner in which the same may be foreclosed shall not be provided, then upon breach of the condition thereof, in case the consideration of such mortgage shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, the same may be foreclosed and the mortgaged property sold by the sheriff or any constable of the county in which such mortgage has been filed upon the written request of the mortgagee, his agent or attorney, upon such notice and in the manner provided by law for the sale of personal property upon execution. And if the consideration of such mortgage shall exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, the same may be foreclosed by an action at law in the circuit court of the county in which such mortgage may have been filed.

Sec. 3. Upon the sale of any mortgaged property as provided by section 2d of this act, the sheriff or constable making the same shall forthwith make his return of his proceedings to the clerk of the county in which such sale shall have been had; and after, deducting the costs and expenses of sale, and satisfying such mortgage in full, he shall deposit the balance of the proceeds, if any, with such clerk, subject to the order of the mortgagor.

Sec. 4. The officer making such sale shall receive the same fees as are allowed by law upon the sale of personal property upon execution, and the clerk shall receive 50 cents for filing each return of sale, and a commission of two per cent. upon all moneys so deposited with him.

Approved Oct. 24th, 1866.

AN ACT to tax and protect Chinamen mining in Oregon.

Section 1. That from and after the first day of December, 1866, no Chinaman shall mine in this State who was not born in the United States, unless licensed to do so as provided in this act.

Sec. 2. Every Chinaman engaged in mining gold in this State, shall pay for such mining privilege the sum of four dollars tax in U. S. gold coin per quarter, in manner hereinafter provided.

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of the county clerk of each county, wherever gold is or hereafter may be mined, on the first Mondays of March, June, September and December of each year, to issue to the sheriff of his county any number of blank licenses sufficient for the purposes contemplated by this act, substantially in the following form:

No.
COUNTY OF }

This certifies that [name of tax-payer] has this day paid the county of —— four dollars, which entitles him to work in the mines of Oregon, three months from date.

[L. S.] Witness my hand and the seal of said county.

—— Clerk.

Sec. 4. Said blank licenses shall be numbered consecutively from the beginning to the close of each fiscal year, and duly recorded by the clerk before issuing the same, and the sheriff shall give receipt for said blanks so issued, which receipt shall be filed and preserved by said clerk.

Sec. 5. All taxes collected by virtue of this act, shall be collected by the sheriff of the county wherein such persons liable to such taxation may reside or be at work, every three months forthwith after the issuing of the license, as provided in the third section of this act.

Sec. 6. Said sheriff shall make due return to the treasurer of his county, of the number of licenses sold, the names of the purchasers, and the amount of money received thereon, which he shall pay over to the treasurer on or before the first Monday of March, and every three months thereafter, always deducting therefrom his lawful fees.

Sec. 7. Before entering on the duties of his office, imposed by this act, the sheriff shall execute and deliver to the board of county commissioners of his county a good and sufficient bond, with two or more sureties, to be approved by said board, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned that he shall well and truly perform the duties imposed by this act, make full and due report of his official proceedings under the same, and promptly pay over to the county treasurer all moneys in his hands collected as taxes from Chinamen, whenever required by law or order of said board of county commissioners; Provided, The bond in the section mentioned shall be additional to that required by existing law in the ordinary qualification of sheriffs, and in no case shall the sureties in the bond herein required, or either of them, be the same who have signed any bond of office for the same sheriff, and said sheriff, thus qualified, shall be held liable on his bond to said board of county commissioners for all licenses by him received, and all moneys collected under the provisions of this act.

Sec. 8. Whenever any Chinaman shall be found mining in any county in said State, not having a license therefor, as in this act provided, and refuses to purchase one, when tendered, the sheriff may seize any property belonging to him, and sell the same at public sale, to the highest bidder, at one hour's notice, which notice shall be given by proclamation. And if the property sold shall amount to more than the payment of the license and cost of sale, the balance shall be paid over to the party whose property was sold.

Sec. 9. Immediately preceding the time fixed by law for the settlement of the sheriff with the treasurer, it shall be the duty of said sheriff to return to the clerk all licenses remaining in his hands, and he shall be required to report to the clerk the amount of money by him paid over to the treasurer, which said clerk shall record in a book, as provided by section 7 of this act.

Sec. 10. The treasurer, as soon as practicable, after each settlement with the sheriff, shall make his report to the clerk of all money received by him from the sheriff, which the clerk shall also keep a record of, as provided in section 7.

Sec. 11. The clerk shall make a report to the county commissioners of all licenses by him delivered to the sheriff, and the number of licenses returned to him, and also transmit the report of the treasurer to said board of commissioners, who shall compare the amount of money in the treasury with the record kept by the clerk and the number of licenses returned by the sheriff. And if there shall be any discrepancy in the amount of money in the treasury and the number of licenses returned by the sheriff, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to immediately inform the prosecuting attorney of the county to which said delinquent and his sureties belong, who shall commence suit against such delinquent and his sureties forthwith.

Sec. 12. If the sheriff, or any person acting as his deputy, shall neglect or refuse to pay over the money collected by either of them, under the provisions of this act, or shall appropriate any part thereof to his or their use, other than the per centum hereinafter provided in this act, he or they shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary any term not less than one year nor more than ten years.

Sec. 13. Any sheriff or his deputy who shall be found guilty of collecting money of any Chinaman by means of fraudulent licenses, shall be deemed guilty of forgery, and upon conviction shall pay a fine of one thousand dollars to the State, and be imprisoned in the penitentiary any term not less than one nor more than ten years.

Sec. 14. Any person having a Chinaman, or any number thereof, to work in the mines of this State, shall be liable for the payment of licenses for any and all such Chinamen so employed.

Sec. 15. Any sheriff may, if necessary, appoint any number of deputies to assist him to collect the tax which this act provides for, but in all such cases the sheriff shall be held responsible on his bonds for the faithful discharge of the duties of such deputies.

Sec. 16. All Chinamen who shall comply with the requirements of this act, shall be protected as being in possession for the State of their mining claim, by all the laws and privileges that protect and govern American citizens in their rights to work said mines.

Sec. 17. If any person shall be charged with circulating fraudulent licenses, or shall alter any license and impose the same on any Chinaman, upon conviction thereof he shall be deemed guilty of forgery, and shall be imprisoned in penitentiary any time not less than one year nor more than ten years, and be fined any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, to be used for State purposes.

Sec. 18. Twenty per cent. of the revenue derived from the taxation of Chinamen before deducting the cost of collecting, shall go and be accounted for to the State Treasury in the same manner as other State revenue is accounted for.

Sec. 19. All able bodied Chinamen residing or remaining within any of the mining districts of this State, shall be considered miners under the provisions of this act, unless they are directly engaged in some other lawful business avocation.

Sec. 20. All Chinamen or Kanakas engaged in trading, buying and selling goods, chattels, merchandise, and all kinds of live stock, and every kind of trade and barter in the State of Oregon, shall pay for such privilege the sum of fifteen dollars per month, to be collected at such times and in such manner as the board of county commissioners may provide; provided, that the sheriff or his deputies shall collect and account for such taxes, the same as China taxes are now collected and accounted for.

Approved Oct. 24, 1866.

Speech of Colonel Forney—Unpublished Speech of President Lincoln.

National Hall, in Philadelphia, was crowded on Tuesday night, September 25th, by an enthusiastic audience, convened under the auspices of the Union League, to listen to speeches by Wayne McVeigh and John W. Forney.

Forney referred to the attempt of President Johnson, in his Philadelphia speech, to cast odium on the Union League, which he insinuated was an organization formed for the subversion of the Constitution of the United States. As I read over his maudlin phrases, I remembered an occasion early in 1864, when, as a member of a Committee, or rather accompanying the Committee, for then I was officially resident in Washington, we waited upon Lincoln for the purpose of presenting to him certain resolutions which had been unanimously adopted by the Union League of Philadelphia, demanding at the hands of the National Convention his renomination for the Presidency. It was a peculiar occasion.

I shall never forget the earnestness with which McMichael, the Chairman of the Committee, presented the resolutions, and the quaint and singular manner with which Lincoln responded to the request of the League. Lincoln himself, on that occasion, presented so peculiar a contrast to the speeches of Andrew Johnson, and particularly to the one to which I have referred, that I turned to the notes which I took on that occasion, and was fortunate enough to find the original speech, as it had been taken down by the reporter, but never yet published. I have that speech in my hand now, and will read it, that you may draw the contrast between it and the incoherent, blasphemous, conceited and raving harangues which have fallen from the President of the United States, made his successor by the bullet of John Wilkes Booth. McMichael, in his peculiarly graceful way, had presented the resolutions of the League. Lincoln desired us to remain seated, and said he would make his reply in his own familiar way. You will recollect that a very serious organization had been prepared to defeat his renomination, growing, doubtless, out of opinions honestly entertained, but the effect of which was to arouse the solicitude of our people. Then this great body, our League, which has been to Philadelphia not simply a party affair, but a benevolence and a charity without parallel, I venture to say, in the history of civilization—this great organization responded to the national demand, and took the lead in insisting that our illustrious President should be placed in nomination for a second term. Lincoln said:

"I suppose that all men are more or less selfish, and I do not suppose that I am an exception to the rule. I very freely acknowledge that this manifestation—of which I heard some time ago and which is now formally presented to me—of the confidence of the Union League of Philadelphia, is very grateful to my feelings. It it should extend to the presentation of what is similar to it by the whole nation, it would, by its comparatively greater size, be still more grateful to my feelings. When this is said, so far as personal and selfish considerations are concerned, all is said that is pleasant to me in the light of being here four years more. It is a situation which has been to me one of painful anxiety and toil far beyond anything I had ever before conceived of. Having said this much in regard to the more selfishness of the matter, I will state briefly what I suppose to be duty of every true man in the country, myself included, and that is to do whatever he can that will best advance the great cause of saving our country. Now, I shall shrink from nothing that shall appear to me to be required of me for that object. I shall not shrink from another man's nomination for the Presidency with any greater hesitation that I would from my own. If it shall be made to appear in any way that the elements upon which the salvation of the country is to depend can be better combined by dismissing me, the country can have no difficulty in getting rid of me. On the contrary, I suppose I need not hesitate in saying here that, if it shall appear to be the best way of concentrating and consolidating the forces upon which the salvation of the country is to depend to use me further, I can say I do not shrink from it. Now, I do not know that it is best to publish this: but, after what has been said to me, I couldn't avoid making it public. It is easy to misconstrue. It is easy to say that I am in the field openly for the Presidency—canvassing for it. I hope I am not. I do not think it is good for the country that it should be so construed and understood. I am sure, here to-night, in the presence of you, gentlemen, and the Almighty, that there is not one act that I am conscious of having done, that looked to this end for myself, that looked to any personal end. I think a man should, in times like these, so keep himself as to be conscious that whatever he has done in this high position, and especially in these extraordinary, difficult times, he has done only for the good of the country. I am sure that I have done no more than this, and I am sure that I will try and remain so. This is not a very long speech, but I have nothing more to say."—New York Tribune, Sept. 27th.

CIRCULAR

To the Officers and Soldiers Oregon Volunteers.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, Salem, Oct. 23, 1866.

BY RECENT ACTS OF CONGRESS ALL OFFICERS of the Volunteer Service who were in Commission March 3d, 1865, and subsequently mustered out after April 9th, 1865, are entitled to three months extra pay proper.

Enlisted men are entitled to additional bounty in certain cases, by Acts of Congress of July 28th, 1866, and the following rules and regulations, together with the form of application adopted by the War Department, are published for the guidance and benefit of all concerned:

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE PAYMENT OF BOUNTIES, UNDER THE ACT TO EQUALIZE BOUNTIES, APPROVED JULY 28, 1866.

WAR DEPARTMENT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, WASHINGTON, September 16, 1866.

1. All applications shall be filed within the period of six months, from the 1st day of October, 1866, and before any payments are made, shall be classified by regiments, battalions, or other separate organizations, and no application filed after that period shall be settled until after the former shall have been paid.

2. No application shall be entertained unless accompanied by the original discharge of the soldier and the affidavit required by the fourteenth section of the Act, and the further affidavit that he has not received, nor is he entitled to receive from the United States, under any laws or regulations prior to the Act of July 28, 1866, more than $100 bounty for any and all military service rendered by him during the late rebellion, over and above the amount therein claimed.

3. All applications for the additional bounty authorized by this Act from surviving soldiers shall be in the form hereinafter prescribed, and the evidence of identity shall be the same as is now required, and applications from the heirs of deceased soldiers shall be in the form now required by the Treasury Department.

4. As soon as the examination of the claims of any regiment, or other independent organization, shall have been properly acted upon the Paymaster General shall take the necessary steps for their prompt payment.

5. A register shall be kept in the Paymaster General's office, and also in the office of the Second Auditor, of all claims presented under the law, in which the claimants will be classified by regiments, etc. If the claims be allowed, the amount of bounty paid to each will be noted, and if rejected the cause of rejection will be distinctly stated.

6. In the applications for bounty, as required by the third of these rules, the affidavit shall state each and every period of service rendered by the claimant, and also that he never served otherwise than as herein stated.

7. Organizations (regularly in the service of the United States, or called out for special purposes, as State Militia, Home Guards, etc., and not included in the general bounty laws, are not included within the meaning of the Act.

8. Soldiers enlisted for "three years or during the war," who were discharged by reason of the termination of the war, shall be considered as having served out the period of their enlistment, and are entitled to bounty under this Act.

9. The minority of heirs, claimants for bounty under this Act, must be proven to have existed at the date of its passage. Parents shall receive jointly the bounty to which they may be entitled as heirs, unless the father has abandoned the support of his family, in which case it shall be paid to the mother. Non-residence in the United States shall not be a bar to the claim of heirs, who would otherwise legally inherit.

1. Those who, after serving the full period of their enlistment, were dishonorably discharged at its expiration.
2. Those discharged during enlistment by way of favor or punishment.
3. Those discharged on account of disability contracted in the service, but not occasioned by wounds received "in the line of duty," who shall not have previously served two or three years respectively at the time of discharge.
4. Those discharged on account of disability existing at the time of their enlistment.
5. The heirs of those who have died since their discharge of wounds or illness not contracted in the service and in the line of duty.
6. The surviving soldiers and heirs of deceased soldiers who, under previous laws, have received or are entitled to receive a bounty of more than $100 from the United States.
7. The surviving soldiers, as well as the heirs of deceased soldiers, when such soldiers have bartered, sold, assigned, loaned, transferred, exchanged or given away their final discharge papers, or any interest in the bounty provided by this or any other Act of Congress.
8. The Act of the 25th of July, 1866, creates no right of inheritance beyond those vested by the law under which these heirs received or were entitled to receive the original bounty, and debars certain classes, brothers and sisters of heirs that were entitled to receive the original bounty, from any claim for the additional bounty provided by this Act.

Respectfully referred to the Attorney General for his opinion on the point whether the rules and regulations as within amended are in conformity with law.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.
September 14, 1866.

I have examined these amended regulations, and am of opinion they are in conformity with law.

HENRY STANBERY, Attorney General.
September 15, 1866.

The foregoing rules and regulations are published for the information and guidance of all concerned.
By order of the Secretary of War,
E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

SOMETHING NEW!
THE NEW LIGHT!
DANFORD'S
Atmospheric Coal Oil Gas Lamp!
ARTIFICIAL LIGHT OF SOME SORT, IS A UNIversal necessity. A Safe, Cheap and Brilliant one is a Luxury—a luxury only enjoyed heretofore by those who live in large cities where Gas is used. Years of study and much capital have been exhausted in experiments to produce a lamp wherein the ordinary Kerosene or Coal Oil could be used without a chimney, and without unpleasant odor while in use. That fruitful source of expense, trouble and annoyance, the chimney, is in DANFORD'S COAL OIL GAS LAMP avoided; it is the most perfect Lamp and will entirely supersede all other Coal Oil Lamps; it is the cheapest artificial light that can be used, yielding the light of an ordinary six foot Gas burner for less than ½ cent per hour, or double the quantity of light of an ordinary Chimney-Lamp, for one-third the cost. It will burn when turned down to a taper-light, ten hours for a cent, is free from smoke, can be carried from room to room and the wind will not blow it out. These LAMPS will be on exhibition and for sale at the Music and Art Gallery of Shanahan & Dufrene, corner of Morrison and First streets.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE,
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES.
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.
How many thousands of persons, both male and [illegible], are there who are suffering out a [illegible] existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from diseases absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, [illegible] and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are afflicted with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, until they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians in Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.
Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse, solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an alarming extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and infallible mode of treating this disease, which [illegible] affecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will forfeit Five Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney st., corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office [illegible]. Consultations FREE.

THAT OLD GREENBACK
I am still obliged to accept of Legal Tender Notes at Par (and have been since Dec. [illegible] 1862) for the rent of my Handsome Brick Store, corner of [illegible] and Front streets [illegible] compelled to [illegible] the benefit of the JACOB MAYER [illegible] leased the building [illegible] Feb. 17, 1862, for a term of [illegible] at which time there was no [illegible] currency in vogue, and it was understood [illegible] were Cash. Since the date [illegible] have received the depreciated currency regularly for the rent of the making less than two-fifths of the rent said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in Coin, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he [illegible] take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see how much it costs to have such tenants in such costly buildings as the one referred to above.
CITY OF PARIS STORE
